The Republican delegates concluded not to repeat some of the mistakes of former years but to give the people of this District a nice, new, clean Republican to vote for. It would have been simply impossible to have elected Gen.
Hartsuff and this is why we opposed him. Mr. Snover was raised at Romeo and for twenty years has practiced law at Port Austin. He is popular at his former home and at his present one and wherever he is known. He is a man whom any Republican can be proud to take off his coat and work for.
This District will be represented at Washington by a Republican.

Republican Caucus.

A caucus of the Republicans of the township of Brockway will be held at the hall in the village of Yale on Tuesday evening, September 18th, 1894, at the hour of 7:30 o'clock p. m., local time, for the purpose of sending delegates to the county convention which is called for Friday, September 21, at Port Huron, for nominating the county officers and a State Senator.

By order of Committee.

Republican Legislative Convention for the first district of Sanilac county at Peck, Saturday, September 15.

Wm. O'Connor, who was defeated by D. N. Runnels two years ago for register of deeds, announces that he is a candidate for the nomination this fall on the Democratic ticket.

John W. Porter, Frank E. Beard, William Mason and F. Schenckler have been appointed an executive committee of the Republican county committee in accordance with the rule adopted at the last convention.

This is the season of the year when the candidate is polishing up his blandest smile and training his hand-painted voice on the captivated exclamation "Why, how d'ye do my dear boy, I'm glad to see you."

Populist candidates for county offices in Sanilac county are as follows—Sheriff, John Bradshaw, of Fremont; Clerk, Jos. D. Galloway, of Worth; Treasurer, Frank Smayfield, Elk; Register of Deeds, Charles Pollard, Austin; Prosecuting Attorney, H. O. Babcock; Custer, Coroners, E. A. Cummer, Elmer, and W. F. Green, Fremont; Circuit Court Commissioners, A. Wick-ware, Greenleaf, and T. H. Graham, Applegate; Surveyor, M. E. Ward, Delaware.

Democratic Caucus.

The democratic caucus for the township of Brockway held in the hall in the village of Yale last Tuesday evening although not very largely attended was very harmonious. A. W. Ferguson was elected chairman. E. R.
Beecher secretary and Dr. Benj. Clyne and David Brown tellers.

The delegates elected to the county convention are A. W. Ferguson, E. R.
Beecher, Fred T. Palmer, William Hodgins, S. O. Welch and Ed Hopkins.

The caucus also elected a township and village committee composed of the following gentlemen: A. W. Ferguson, Fred T. Palmer, Dr. Clyne, village; Wm. Hodgins, Jerry Johnson and Ed Hopkins for the township.

An exchange says that when you talk about there being a better state than Michigan every potato shyly winks its eyes, every cabbage shakes its head, every beet gets red in the face, every onion feels stronger, every oat field is shocked, rye strokes its beard, corn sticks up its ears and every foot of land kicks. The horses even denounce the statement with a neigh.

Look out for rag weed. It is this noxious plant that causes hay fever and if you have any about your premises see that it is dug up and destroyed before it blossoms. Women will hang out a washing in the yard where rag weed is in blossom and in less than twenty-four hours will begin to cough and sneeze, and wonder where they took cold. And they will not recover from this affliction until the frost comes.

M. P. CONFERENCE.

The Stationing Committee Made the Following Reports, August 25.

(Capac Journal.)

The M. P. Michigan annual conference in session here last week closed its labors with a series of conventions in Aldrich grove last Sunday and preaching in the M. E. church in the evening by Rev. Flint and in the M. P. church by Rev. Green. At the morning meeting in the grove Rev. Coulbourn, of W. Va., secretary of the address, after which a good collection was taken for the benefit of that mission. Then the conference ordained as elders, C. H. Dains, W. Dinwoodie and W. C. Harger. The afternoon services consisted of a love feast, a Christian Endeavor rally, and a church extension service. For the benefit of the church extension, a collection was taken which amounted to $105. These services were largely attended, 1,500 people being on the grounds, many of whom brought their dinners and spent the entire day, and great enthusiasm was manifested.

ciety, S. Riley. To attend Adrian College, F. Nichols, A. B. Sutcliffe and J. R. Richards.

The M. P. conference sessions were interesting throughout and harmonious; the evening sessions were interesting and instructive. The reports from the different churches showed a marked progress in all the departments of their work. During the year a number of fine churches have been erected and a number of new church classes have been organized.

Rev. J. E. Hubbell, the efficient president of the conference was re-elected for another year by a unanimous vote.
Conspicuous among the visiting brethren was Rev. C. D. Coulbourn, of Lynchburg, Va., who represented in a very able manner the cause of the Foreign Missions.

The Woman's Foreign Mission society held two very pleasant and profitable sessions in the M. E. church on Thursday and Friday afternoons. Mrs.
D. S. Cramer was re-elected secretary; and, as this society is represented in the National convention which meets in Baltimore, Md., next May, Mrs. S.
Windrom was elected representative from this society. The reports of the society show a growing interest in the great work of bringing the whole world under the golden banner of Divine truth. Many cheering words of hope were given in the address presented by Mrs. R. N. Mulholland, who has always been an efficient worker in this noble cause.

The Sunday services in the grove were opened with a very warm and enthusiastic love feast that lasted half an hour. Then Rev. Coulbourn spoke eloquently on "The growing and prevailing power of Truth." At the Christian Endeavor rally in the afternoon the welcome address was given by Mrs.
Hitchings, president of the Capac branch, and was responded to by Rev.
C. H. Dains. Reports from the different branches showed an increase of interest and membership. And Rev.
M. R. Saigeon gave a very excellent report of the Cleveland C. E. convention.

Following this exercise came the meeting of the church extension society, and addresses were given by Revs.
Scott, Riley, Henerys and Traver, and the collection amounted to $105.

In the evening services were held in both the M. P. and M. E. churches, Rev.
R. Rutledge at the former and Rev. W.
H. Flint at the latter place. Mr. Flint was formerly pastor of the M. P. church in this village and preached Sunday evening at the earnest request of numerous friends. The services Sunday evening closed with the administration of the Lord's Supper.

At a session of the conference held Monday morning, Rev. Windrom was changed to Yale and Rev. Rutledge was changed from Yale to Capac.

Thus closed a most profitable and interesting session of the Eastern Michigan Annual Conference.
